Top tips for studying History at A Level

- Be prepared – complete transition work, get things that you will need (folders, pens, highlighters etc.)
- Read! The more you read, the better your knowledge and quality of writing!
- Be willing to work hard, it will be challenging!
- Utilise all lessons, study periods, homework effectively. The Library has fantastic History resources!

What do I need to do to prepare before September?

- Over the summer make sure you complete the transition work which can be found on the website. There is work for both Russia and the Tudors.
- This should be brought to your lessons in September.
- Look at the specification from the examination board.
 - Tudors - AQA | History | Subject content | 1C The Tudors: England, 1485–1603
 - Russia - AQA | History | Subject content | 2N Revolution and dictatorship: Russia, 1917–1953
- Further reading and documentaries – there is so much out there, indicated on transition work.
