Art & Photography Assessment Guidance

Formative Assessment:

Formative assessment is an integral part of lesson planning and the learning process – following guidelines in the assessment timetable.

KEY STAGE 3

- Tracking sheet is displayed in the front of sketchbooks and used to track assessment criteria (Skills) over two years.
- The skills criteria is used to plan lessons and inform learning objectives.
- A Yearly Assessment Tracking sheet is used by both students and teacher to track progress, class work, global assessments, literacy tasks and homework throughout the three projects. This should be completed in most lessons by either students or the teacher.
- Individual pieces of work can be marked using additional slips for further comments, if required.
- No written comments will be made directly in the sketchbook in PEN.
- Work is graded with PATHWAYS only. Effort levels are awarded using house points.
- Year 7 and 8 final teacher assessments are expected once a module.
- Literacy tasks will be recorded in the back of the sketchbook.
- Homework tasks will be clearly identified within the sketchbook.
- Teachers should take in and mark the students sketchbook a minimum of once a module.

KEY STAGE 4

- GCSE Assessment criteria is used to inform lesson planning and learning objectives.
- Students work is assessed regularly against individual AQA Assessment criteria using AO1/2/3/4 sheets that are clipped in books/worksheets. Targets are highlighted or written.
- Teacher/Student progress tutorials to be recorded on tracking sheets by either the teacher or student with targets/deadlines given.
- Sketchbooks/portfolio work needs to be collected in and monitored regularly (approx twice a module)
- Summative assessment is undertaken, including module grades, reports, estimated GCSE grades and other external accreditations:

Key stage 5
